

Programme for the GHC Summer School 2015

7-Sep. Mon.	9:00-9:45	Opening Remarks Orientation
	10:00-12:00	Session 1: Colonial and Decolonial (moderator: Prof. Conrad) 1. Fabian Krautwald (Berlin): Colonialism, Revolution, and the Scaling of History-The German Colonial Society 1918-1919 2. Nakao Sakiko (EHESS): "Defining "Africa": the Pan-African Struggles of the Young Elites during the Decolonisation in West Africa (1945:1962)
		Session 2: Shared Knowledge and Science (moderator: Prof. Adelman) 1. Emily Kern (Princeton): Evolution's Footprints: Transnational Science, Human Identity and the Emergence of Global Research Networks in Twentieth Century Biology 2. Emoto Hiroshi (Tokyo): The Reception History of John Ruskin: Towards a Global History of Modern Architectural Thought 3. Fukuhara Kotaro (Tokyo): Factors of the Development of Rice Farming in High Latitudes: Example of Northeastern Region of China.
	13:30-16:30
8-Sep. Tue	9:00-12:00	Session 3: Nation and Identity 1 (moderator: Prof. Eckert) 1. Fabian Steining (Berlin), The Nation Forms. A Study of Conceptual Change in the Late Ottoman Empire 2. Sarah Abel (EHESS), Assessing the Social Limits of Genetic Identities: A Study of DNA 'Ancestry' Testing Practices in the US and Brazil 3. Kim Jiyoung (Tokyo): Overseas/ Foreign Travel Experience and Korea's Globalism in 1980s
		Session 4: Nation and Identity 2 (moderator: Prof. Sebastiani) 1. Karina Kriegesmann (Berlin): Dangerous Fears: Brazilian Media and the Emotionalization of the Public, 1917-1930. 2. Gabriela Goldin (EHESS): A Collective Biography of New Spain's Lettered City in the 18th century. 3. Terada Yuki (Tokyo): Global History through the Medium of Museums: The Establishment and Evolution of Museums in Iran.
		Session 5: Eurasia and East Asia (moderator: Prof. Chen) 1. Lkhagvasuren Mandkhai (Tokyo): Reexamination of Mongol Administration: the Case of Bitigchis 2. Cheng Yongchao (Tokyo): Role and Contribution of Joseon Embassies to Tokugawa Japan and Imperial China
9-Sep. Wed.	9:00-12:00
	12:00-12:30	Photo session
	13:30-15:30
	16:30-18:30	Global History Forum at Fukutake Hall
	18:45	Reception (Prof.SONODA shigeto, the Deputy Director General of the International Division, Uof Tokyo will make an opening speech)
10-Sep. Thu.	9:30-11:30	Session 6: Indian Ocean (moderator: Prof. Stanziani) 1. Leonald von Galen (Berlin): "(...) they were like kings" Indian Merchants in the Sultanate Zanzibar and Oman (1840-1856) 2. Katakura Shizuo (Tokyo): Institutional Changes of Major Port Cities in the Nineteenth-Century Western Indian Ocean: Overlapping Empires and Merchant Networks
		PM
11-Sep. Fri	9:00-12:00	Session 7: Economy and Finance (moderator: Prof. Kuroda) 1. Andrea Tosato (EHESS): Public Debt and Private Credit in XVIII and XIX Century Britain 2. Andrew Edwards (Princeton): Sovereignty v. Commonwealth: Money and Empire from British North America. 3. Paula Vedoveli (Princeton): Institutions and Financial Networks in Rio de Janeiro and London in the Second Half of the 19th Century
		Session 8: Transnational (moderator: Prof. Garon) 1. Thomas Lindner (Berlin): Anti-Imperialism in Interwar Latin America: The Magazine El Libertador between Global Solidarity and Continental Unity 2. Marcia C. Schenck (Princeton): Scaling the Magerman: Transnational and Translocal Migrant Labor Networks from Mozambique to East Germany 1979-1992.
		13:30-15:30
12-Sep. Sat		Excursion to Noboribetsu 1. Hokkaido Museum 2. The Ainu Museum